

MARCH 2010

| SUN | MON | TUES | WED | THURS | FRI | SAT |
|--|--|--|---|---|---|---|
| | 1 The best time for planning! Check out our landscape design service. | 2 Spread manure and/or compost on garden when ground is frozen | 3 | 4 Watch for Eastern bluebird return | 5 Start peppers from seed | 6 Seminar: Backyard Bird-watching - 12:00 In the OWL BARN |
| 7 | 8 Take a soil test in your lawn and/or garden | 9 Seminar: New Plant Introductions 6:30pm in the OWL BARN | 10 Order locally grown bare root fruit trees from Dayton's | 11 | 12 Over-seed your lawn when ground is frozen without snow | 13 Transplant trees and shrubs now Except Dogwoods, Magnolias, Fragrant Viburnum and Hemlock |
| 14 Daylight Savings Time Begins | 15 Apply dormant oil to trees & shrubs when above freezing | 16 Seminar: Organic Gardening with Espoma 6:30 pm in the OWL BARN | 17 Trim back Heathers (Calluna) to shape St. Patrick's Day | 18 Rake out any evidence of snow mold on your lawn when snow leaves or the mold will spread | 19 Plant bare root trees & shrubs | 20 Seminar: Our New Green Roof 12:00 in the OWL BARN Spring Begins |
| 21 Cut all dead wood out of roses and trim to shape | 22 Start Dahlia & Begonia tubers and Cannas indoors for planting in May | 23 | 24 Check out Dayton's weekly blogs for more gardening info | 25 Plant onion sets, peas, lettuce & seed potatoes | 26 Plant bare-root conifers, ornamental trees & shrubs | 27 Seminar: Mountain Laurels 12:00 in the OWL BARN |
| 28 Plant bare root strawberries, blackberries, raspberries, asparagus, rhubarb if weather allows Palm Sunday | 29 Trim back type "C" Clematis to ground | 30 Plant pansies & violas for cool weather flowers | 31 Cut back ornamental grasses and dead tops of perennials such as Mums | | | |